

Just Jiseung Weekend April 6–7, 2024

2-day immersion into jiseung—Korean paper basketry—taught by Aimee Lee
Corner storefront location at 4060 Mayfield Road in South Euclid, Ohio; parking and entrance in rear

Techniques covered

- Paper and tools for jiseung
- Tearing down hanji
- Cording hanji strips
- Natural dye for cords
- Twining with a circular base
- Rim finish

Included in $700 fee

- Aimee's full-time instruction, 10am–4pm
- Materials & handouts
- Use of studio tools
- Access to Aimee's unique library of books, samples, tools
- Small class size for focused learning
- Lunch

Not included in tuition

- Travel
- Lodging
 - The closest hotel, located within Legacy Place (an outdoor mall with amenities) is this Hyatt: <https://www.hyatt.com/en-US/hotel/ohio/hyatt-place-cleveland-lyndhurst-legacy-village/clezi>
 - Airbnb locations abound in Cleveland Heights (housing near their business districts on Lee Road or Coventry Road offer walking-distance amenities). There are a few in South Euclid within walking distance to the studio but amenities are less walkable
 - The closest bus line is Route 9 that runs east/west on Mayfield Road. If you want to stay in Shaker Heights or University Heights, Route 41 runs north/south on Warrensville Road and stops a few blocks west. Public transport is not robust but exists: <https://www.riderta.com/>
- Car rental/local transportation
- Breakfast and dinner
- Optional pre-eclipse brunch on Mon, April 8. Eclipse info: <https://www.thisiscleveland.com/2024-solar-eclipse>

To reserve your spot, 50% deposit ($350) is due now; full tuition due by March 18, 2024. No refunds after March 18 unless your space can be filled (full refund before March 18 minus a $75 processing fee for cancellation).

For more information, please email contact@aimeelee.net.