

Hanji retreat July 29–Aug 2, 2024

5-day immersive workshop in a dedicated hanji studio taught by Aimee Lee
Corner storefront location at 4060 Mayfield Road in South Euclid, Ohio; parking and entrance in rear

Techniques covered

- Understanding plants/fibers appropriate for Korean-style paper
- Fiber prep: scraping, cooking, rinsing, picking, beating
- Webal sheet formation (suspended frame, professional tools: bal & bal teul)
- Pressing, boarding, drying paper
- Bark lace and thread
- Jiseung cords and basic twining
- Paper thread

Included in $1,750 fee

- Aimee's full-time instruction with assistant
- Instruction from 10am–4pm
- Materials & handouts
- Use of studio tools/equipment
- Access to Aimee's unique library of books, samples, tools
- Small class size to maximize webal vat practice
- Lunch from five different Cleveland-area eateries
- Optional Cleveland art tour on July 20 (pay-your-own lunch in AsiaTown)

Not included in tuition

- Travel
- Lodging
 - The closest hotel, located within Legacy Place (an outdoor mall with amenities) is this Hyatt: <https://www.hyatt.com/en-US/hotel/ohio/hyatt-place-cleveland-lyndhurst-legacy-village/clezi>
 - Airbnb locations abound in Cleveland Heights (housing near their business districts on Lee Road or Coventry Road offer walking-distance amenities). There are a few in South Euclid within walking distance to the studio but amenities are less walkable
 - The closest bus line is Route 9 that runs east/west on Mayfield Road. If you want to stay in Shaker Heights or University Heights, Route 41 runs north/south on Warrensville Road and stops a few blocks west. Public transport is not robust but exists: <https://www.riderta.com/>
- Car rental/local transportation
- Breakfast and dinner
- Shipping costs if you want to mail paper (hanji is usually dry the day after it is made)

To reserve your spot, 50% deposit ($875) is due now; full tuition due by July 8, 2024. No refunds after July 8 unless your space can be filled (full refund before July 8 minus a $75 processing fee for cancellation).

For more information, please email contact@aimeelee.net.